

Are You Interested in a Health Career?

Doctor, Dentist, Nurse, Physician's Assistant, Social Worker, Pharmacist, Public Health, Occupational Therapist, Physical Therapist, Nutritionist, Biomedical Researcher, Psychologist, Paramedic, Respiratory Therapist and many more!

FREDERICK DOUGLASS ACADEMY I

Proudly Presents
the

MENTORING IN MEDICINE, INC. 4th ANNUAL CONFERENCE

“ Yes, I Can be a Health Care Professional!”

Date: Saturday, December 5, 2009

Time: 8am-2pm
Registration/Continental Breakfast begins at 8:00am
Conference begins promptly at 9:00am

Place: Frederick Douglass Academy I
2581 Adam Clayton Powell Boulevard (also 7th Ave.)
Between 148th and 150th (free parking in lot)

By subway: #3 to the last stop, “A” train to 145th Street

Who: Students (3rd grade through 12th grade), College Students,
Caregivers, Health Professional Students, Educators, Community
Members and Practicing Health Professionals

Cost: FREE

RSVP: Register by November 20, 2009
<http://mentoringinmedicineconference.eventbrite.com>
(Students/Educators/Supporters/Health Professionals)

Call (718)920-6626 Mrs. Perrineau for information

Educational WorkshopsAsk the Expert FairPrize and Scholarship
GiveawayLunch with a Health Professional

Mentoring in Medicine is a nonprofit organization dedicated to mentoring, academic enrichment and leadership development in students underrepresented in medicine (Black, Hispanic, and Native American). Programs have been featured in The New York Times, JET, Essence and the NY Daily News. All are invited.